Animal Babies on the Farm: Editors of Kingfisher ...

It is a bit short though, and I wish there were more animals. The books follows a format where it gives a clue and a close up photo of an animal, and you have to guess the animal (ex. curly pig tail). When you turn the page, the animal is revealed with its parent. This pattern, however, is disrupted at the end when you get to the horse. I don't know why they did that, but I found it annoying.
