City of Chicago :: Chicago History

Chicago was only 46 years old when Mark Twain wrote those words, but it had already grown more than 100 fold, from a small trading post at the mouth of the Chicago River into one of the nation's largest cities, and it wasn't about to stop. Over the next 20 years, it would quadruple in population, amazing the rest of the world with its ability to repeatedly reinvent itself.

Chicago HISTORY

The 1832 Black Hawk War ended the last Native American resistance in the area. Chicago was incorporated as a town in 1833 and as a city in 1837, when its population reached 4,000.
